2. GENERAL REGULATIONS

2.4 Payment Arrangements and Credit Allowances (Continued)

5. Late Payment Charge

- a. A late payment charge of two percent (2%) for residence customers (limited to one and one half percent (1.5%) for the first year following the effective date of this charge) and up to three percent (3%) for business customers may be charged for Company regulated services. A late payment charge of up to two percent (2%) for residence customers (limited to one and one half percent (1.5%) for the first year following the effective date of this charge) and up to three percent (3%) for business customers may be applied to charges for regulated services provided by a third party, provided:
 - (1) Company has given notice to customers; or
 - (2) The contract between the customer and the particular third party provides for the late fee; or
 - (3) A valid tariff exists permitting the particular third party to charge the late fee.
- b. A different late fee may apply to charges for unregulated services at the rate as provided by the terms of service for these unregulated services, but not to exceed the rate for regulated service.
- c. Late payment charges will be applied to the unpaid balance of each subscriber's bill (including amounts billed in accordance with the Company's Billing and Collections Tariff) when the previous month's bill has not been paid in full prior to the next billing date.
